6-4A-3: KENNEL LICENSE:

A. Limit On Number Of Dogs; Application And Hearing:

1. It is unlawful for any person, group of persons in the same dwelling, or family to keep, harbor, or maintain any number more than three (3) dogs over five (5) months of age in or upon any property, single-family residence, apartment, townhouse, condominium, or any building not used as a dwelling. (Ord. 244, 1997; amd. 2000 Code)
2. This section shall not apply to licensed veterinarian hospitals, but it is intended to apply to keeping or maintaining a dog kennel, and breeding dogs, which are hereby declared to be nuisances, unless licensed after permission granted by the city council after application and hearing.
3. Such hearing shall be held after investigation of the premises of the kennel by an animal control officer, who shall make a recommendation to the city council.

B. License Required; Fee: A kennel license shall be required where the applicant owns, harbors, or keeps more than three (3) dogs, which application shall be authorized or refused in the sole discretion of the city council. The license fee shall be fifty dollars ($50.00) per calendar year, or any part thereof, and the license shall expire on December 31, unless sooner revoked.

C. Revocation Of License: Upon complaint being made to the city council that a licensed kennel is being operated in an improper manner, the city council may revoke the license of such kennel, after a proper hearing and notice to the licensee. (Ord. 244, 1997)
